

Commentary on dairy, exports and trade

OTTAWA, June 22, 2015 — A paper released today by CAPI addresses certain issues facing Canada's dairy sector, rising dairy imports, the prospect for growing exports, and the connection between international producer subsidies, the impact on sustainability and implications for Canada's agri-food sector as a whole and the country's future trade agenda.

▶ PDF of the commentary