

CHICAGO DIALOGUE ON TRADE AND SUSTAINABILITY

July 31, 2019

1211 West 22nd Street, Suite 120

Oak Brook, Illinois

Agenda

Tuesday, July 30

6:00 p.m. Reception and Dinner
Venue: Antico Posto, 118 Oakbrook Center, Oak Brook, IL 60523

Wednesday, July 31

7:00 a.m. Breakfast

8:00 a.m. Welcome and Introductions
Megan Provost, Farm Foundation
Don Buckingham, CAPI

8:15 a.m. Setting the Stage: Global Sustainability and Agriculture Trade
Tom Hertel, Purdue University
Ted Bilyea, CAPI, and Richard Gray, University of Saskatchewan

10:15 a.m. Break

10:30 a.m. Discussion One: The State of Global Sustainability Initiatives
Discuss the current and potential state of U.S., Canadian and global agricultural sustainability work, objectives and targets, driven by governments, industry, consumers or NGOs.

11:30 a.m. Discussion Two: The Implications of Disruptions in Agricultural Trade Flows
Discuss the implications of potential disruptions in trade flows on the use of natural capital and, consequently, on the sector's future sustainability.

12:30 p.m. Lunch

1:30 p.m. Discussion Three: The Future of Agricultural Trade and Sustainability
Discuss the capacity for further analysis to inform future sectoral strategies and policies to improve the resiliency of the sector in the face of adverse conditions created by unforeseen events.

2:30 p.m. Closing Remarks and Discussion
Megan Provost, Farm Foundation
Don Buckingham, CAPI

3:00 p.m. Adjourn